Mr. Dulles has asked me to acknowledge your letter to him of 21 March and your previous letter to [redacted] of 6 March, asking whether it would be possible for us to ascertain the whereabouts of your former husband.

STAT

The matter of your request is somewhat beyond the purview of this Agency. Therefore, I asked a personal friend to inquire informally of the mental institutions and vital statistics in the Washington area in an endeavor to ascertain whether your former husband is committed to a mental institution or whether he is deceased. My friend has advised me that his inquiries have failed to disclose any record of your former husband.

I am sorry this effort has been unsuccessful in obtaining definitive information. If you feel you wish to pursue the question further, I suggest that perhaps your best recourse would be to retain a local attorney or investigator who could continue the discreet inquiry which you desire.

Sincerely,
